A message from Father Felix:

"I celebrated the 4th of July but without fireworks. I meet the U.S. Ambassador to Lesotho every Sunday because I say the English Mass every Sunday. The Ambassador and his wife are staunch Catholics. The same is true for the Irish Ambassador. We are so blessed to have those two ambassadors to our country. They are special They do so much work for the country; that is unprecedented. Maybe being a Catholics makes them more dedicated than any ambassador we have known in the history of the countries' relations with Lesotho. The U.S. and Ireland are some of the few that have maintained their embassies within Lesotho.

"It is brutally cold. Last night it was 9 degrees Celsius below zero.

"Greetings to all St. Mary's parishioners. I still have them close to my hearts. Memories of good times at Wildcat periodically come back so forcefully, especially when I hard of the Parish Picnic. Mom always calls me and asks me, 'Please pass my greeting to all your American friends.'"
