Our teenage son, Marc, never misses an opportunity to remind us that he needs his own car. One morning as I drove him to school, it was apparent that we would be late. I asked him to write a note, which I would sig when we arrived. At school, he handed me a pen and the note, which read: "Marc is late this morning due to car trouble. The trouble is, Marc doesn't have his own car, and his mom drives too slowly."

HUGS-A mom's hug lasts long after she lets go.

STAY WITH US, LORD

Walk with us, Lord, along the road of resurrection! Explain for us, so slow to believe, the things that Scripture says of you. Break the bread of the Eucharist with us whenever we share our lives with our brothers and sisters. Stay with us each time night approaches and the daylight fades in our hearts!

dear Padre

How should we dress for Mass?

Parishioners come to Mass dressed quite casually these days. Some wear shorts, sandals, old jeans, or gym shoes. What is proper and respectful church attire?

When I was a child, my father always wore a dress shirt and tie to church, my mother wore a dress, and my eight brothers and sisters and I were also impeccably dressed.

Times certainly have changed. We're a much more casual society. That being said, I think it's good for people to dress up for Mass. Parents need to set an example for their children and get into the habit of wearing their "Sunday best"—even if it's Saturday evening.

The Church, being universal, does not have an official dress code. "Appropriate attire" in the jungles of Brazil is very different from appropriate attire in New York City. We must be sensitive to culture and to financial situations. Also, what is not appropriate for Easter Sunday morning may be fine for a Sunday night teen Mass.

I think we need to speak up when someone is dressed inappropriately, but do so in a kind manner and avoid being judgmental. A sign in the back of Church or an occasional announcement in the bulletin may be a better alternative. Try something like, "Summer is here, but remember when you dress for Mass that church isn't the beach."

We show respect at Church events by our participation and in the way we dress.
