IN THE BEGINNING-(week 16) I'm getting a little baby fat under my skin. My heart is pumping as much as 6 gallons a day at a rate about double my mom's. I can swim and kick and do somersaults! I'm the same size as my placenta now. I'm not a lightweight anymore-I weigh almost six ounces and I am about three inches long. Chris will keep growing until about 23 years of age. The mother might be able to hear tiny thumps of Chris's heartbeat with an external monitor now. "They, no less than I, created I the womb by the one same God who shaped us all within our mothers." (Job 31:15)

GIVING OF ONESELF-Scientists have recently begun to discuss the idea that the primary force behind all life in the universe is self gift. This is how everything from galaxies to human babies are born and sustained. If we read the opening of today's passage from Isaiah correctly, we see that he anticipated twentieth-century scientists by over twenty five hundred years. Using the self-giving example of the rain and snow clouds that water the earth that then yields fruit, which in turn is given over to nourish creatures, Isaiah leads us to understand that the primary force behind all life is the word of God. The ultimate giving of that word, we believe, was Jesus Christ, who, in the greatest revelation of divine love, gave of himself on the cross. To what degree are we in touch with that self-giving God in whose image we are made? To what extent do we really follow the self-giving example of Christ into whose death and resurrection we were baptized, whose ultimate self-gift we celebrate every week in the Eucharist? With God's help, our lives can be like Isaiah's rain and snow, and we will not return to heaven until we have done our part to make the earth fruitful.

A priest in Florida complained that it was very difficult to get the Christian message across to this parish. "It's so beautiful here in the winter," he said, "that heaven doesn't interest them. And it's so hot here in the summer, that hell doesn't scare them."

What is scrupulosity?

My brother goes to reconciliation at more than one parish so he can be sure he's getting the "right" penance. This isn't normal. What should I do?

It sounds as though your brother has scrupulosity, a condition characterized by obsessive thoughts about matters of faith. People with scrupulosity sometimes confess the same sin to several priests and compare answers.

Living with scrupulosity is lonely and emotionally draining. The shame people with scrupulosity feel over their perceived sinfulness often isolates them from friends and family who can't understand their fears.

The treatment for scrupulosity is a combination of good pastoral care from one—and only one—priest as well as professional guidance, which often includes drug therapy. Researchers are studying scrupulosity's similarities to obsessive-compulsive disorder.

Another excellent source of support is Liguori Publications' free monthly newsletter, Scrupulous Anonymous, which is available at ScrupulousAnonymous.org. There you'll find links to other resources as well as information on retreats for people with scrupulosity.

If your brother asks for help, advise him to ask his pastor for the name of a priest in his diocese who specializes in scrupulosity, and tell him about Scrupulous Anonymous. Until then, continue to pray for him and be a loving, compassionate sibling.
