IN THE BEGINNING--(week 28)1 am about 14 inches tall now and growing really fast. If Chris were born now, Chris would have an 85% chance of survival because Chris's lungs have been getting stronger. I'm going to be in my first Life Chain today. The cars may not notice me but my mom will. Not much room to wave in here. My eyes are opening so I will practice blinking at people." Sometimes moms have cravings. Pickles and ice cream make a good snack.

"Rejoice always; pray without ceasing; in every thing give thanks; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus." (1 Thesalonians 5:16-18).

Tom and Matt were best of friends, they played football once a week for 50 years. When they were getting older they had an argument if people play football in heaven. So they made up that whoever dies first will let the other one know what happens in heaven. After Matt dies he comes to Tom in a dream and tells him, "You were right! They play up here and not only that, they have your name for starting quarterback!" Oh wow!!! That's great!!! Tom replies. "Well," replies Matt. "Not that great, they have you playing tomorrow night!!!"
