Archbishop's pastoral visit

Dear parishioners, next Saturday, June 9, his Grace, Archbishop Naumann will be meeting with the council members, the leadership team and the youth of our two parishes: St. Mary's and Sacred Heart at 5:00 PM at Sacred Heart Parish Hall.

Some of you may be wondering what a pastoral visit is all about. This is a very ancient tradition, in which the diocesan bishop goes and spends time with a parish to get a sense of the life of that community. It is also a time for ministry members to share their concerns, challenges and ideas with our Archbishop, as well as an opportunity to receive guidance and inspiration from him on how we could implement better our parish as well as the Archdiocesan vision.

The Archbishop will conclude his visit with the Eucharistic celebration at 7:00 PM. You are most welcome to join us for the Eucharistic celebration.

The Feast of the Corpus Christi

This has been a time of celebrations for us as Catholics. Today we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. In fact, it's the celebration of the gift of the Eucharist. This is not only a time to celebrate this gift to us from Christ, but also to consider its meaning and richness both in the life of the Church and in our lives as Catholics. This feast invites us into a deeper sense of companionship and communion with both Christ and our community. May Jesus in the Eucharist always be the very center and heart of our church, the center and heart of our faith, the center and heart of our parish, and the center and heart of the lives of each of us.

Please Note! I will be attending a Retreat at Atchison from Monday, June 4 until Thursday June 7 and so there will be no masses on these days. In case of emergency, please call me at 913-530-3618. Please keep all the priests of Archdiocese on retreat in your prayers.

Rosary! The tradition of praying the rosary every Wednesday at 7:30pm in the summer months at the Grotto in St. St. Benedict has started. Come, join us!

THIS IS THE BLOOD OF THE COVENANT

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION-The origins of today's solemnity lie in thirteenth-century Belgium. In those days, people seldom received Holy Communion, and never from the chalice. A nun in a troubled convent, Juliana of Liège, devoted her life to stirring up love for the Eucharist, lobbying for a feast day to honor the Blessed Sacrament with Masses and processions.

Juliana may have been inspired by the Ascension Day processions in nearby Bruges. Crusaders brought a treasure home to Bruges from Constantinople in 1204: a reliquary said to contain a cloth from Joseph of Arimathea with which he had helped prepare the body of Jesus for burial. The stain on the cloth was said to be the holy blood itself, and so the people of Bruges built a great basilica to house the relic. Bruges became a great center of pilgrimage because of this treasure, and the procession of the Holy Blood is still one of the greatest festivals in Belgium today. The bishop carries the relic through the narrow streets, and the people wear medieval costumes and act out scenes from the Bible.

Marriage Minute June 3, 2018

“This is my body, given up for you.” These words, spoken at Mass, make Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament. If you are married in the Church, you and your spouse are a different kind of “blessed sacrament,” one designed by God to signify the sacrificial love that Jesus has for us all! We also make Jesus present when we “give up our bodies” for each other, in ways such as: • Making physical affection and intimacy an important part of our lives • Carrying and/or caring for the needs of children • Working to provide for the family’s needs • Performing ordinary acts of service with great love • Choosing to be present with your spouse instead of elsewhere.

A catechist told her class, “We have been learning about how powerful the kings and queens were in biblical time. But there is a high power. Who can tell me what it is?” Little Jonnie blurted out, “I know! I know! Aces!”
