Do you wish to become a member of our parish? We welcome you! Please contact the pastor or the parish office.

For several weeks we have listened to readings that have recounted just how arduous the work of prophets and disciples can be. In today's Gospel, the Lord Jesus listens to the reports of those he had sent out "two by two" to minister to the people. After the apostles reported what they had done, Jesus, recognizing their fatigue, says, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place & rest awhile" (Mk 6:31). Perhaps this is what the Lord is telling his disciples in the year 2018 as well. We need to pause on our journey of discipleship and simply rest in the Lord. Sunday Mass provides many opportunities for quiet times, particularly during the periods of silence following the readings. Why not take the time today to allow the saving word of the Lord to penetrate your heart during those silent times? Ask the Lord to renew you in body, mind & spirit for the arduous work of discipleship.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The American Revolution cleared the way for freedom of religion in the former colonies, since the colonies had always been a more religiously tolerant place than the old country. Even so, colonial laws restricted the practice of the Catholic faith, and just as in England, Americans who desired to be priests or nuns had to go to the Netherlands or France. As political storm clouds gathered in France, an American woman, Mother Bernardina Matthews, the prioress of the Hoogstraeten Carmel in Holland, made a brave move. With two other American nuns, her nieces, and a Dutch sister, she came to Port Tobacco, Maryland, in 1790. Within twenty years the community had grown to twenty, although by 1823 their farm failed and they had to move to Baltimore and open a school. The Carmelite order requires contemplation and cloister, so in time the school was closed. The Port Tobacco land had long since been sold, but in 1976 a community of nuns was able to return thanks to loyal neighbors who had worked for forty years for their restoration. Today, our original American convent is fully alive in prayer, hard work, and strong community. - Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Catholicism DVD Series

Episode 5- The Indispensable Men: Peter & Paul. the ones without whom the church never would have emerged and survived." this episode follows the trail of these apostles as they took the Gospel to the ends of the earth.

Episode 6- A Body Both Suffering And Glorious: "What is the Church?" The Body of Christ can be seen on earth from Rome to the cities of New York, Sao Paolo, Manila, Namugongo and Uganda. Christ continues to embrace humanity in all its joys & sorrows through the presence of the Church.
