From the

Pastor's Desk

Dear parishioners,

A few weeks ago, we heard Jesus say to his disciples: "Come away... and rest a while" (Mark 6:31). In obedience to Jesus' suggestion, I shall be gone on a month-long vacation beginning this week. The weekend masses will be covered by different visiting priests. In case of emergency, please contact the neighboring priests (Fr. Arul from Seneca, 336-2208 or Fr. Jim Shaughnessy from Axtell 336-1745) from our neighboring parishes. They have been notified about this need.

During the weekdays, there will be NO mass or Communion Service in our churches. Since our neighboring parishes are very close by, please make use of those opportunities. (Axtell 8:00am on Tue, Thu and Fri; Seneca: Tue:6pm, Wed - Fri: 7am, Sat.7:30am).

I look forward to returning to the happy autumn of Kansas, meanwhile wishing 'Bon Voyage' to all those who travel this summer. May the Lord bless your summer !

Mission Appeal

The Missionary Cooperative Program of our Archdiocese has selected the Benedictines to preach the mission appeal in our two parishes. Abbot James Albers from St. Benedict's Abbey, Atchison, will be giving a Mission Appeal at the weekend Masses on August 25-26, 2018.

Missionary Cooperative Program is an opportunity for our parishes to participate in the universal mission work of our Catholic Church. Your participation is greatly appreciated!

Bishops' Call to Prayer

The U.S. bishops invite the faithful to join a movement of prayer & sacrifice for the protection of life, marriage & religious liberty in our country. From Friday, Aug. 3 - Friday, Sept. 28, 2018, the weekly Call to Prayer will be adapted as a 9-week Novena for the Legal Protection of Human Life.

In addition to the current invitation to fast on Fridays, participants are encouraged to pray one Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be for the intention of the novena. Participants will receive weekly email or text reminders to pray and fast along with little-known facts about Roe v. Wade to share with others. Sign up at www.usccb.org/pray!

Treasures from our Tradition

Sometimes the heat of summer translates into unrest in a city's streets. In the summer of 1834, popular sentiment against the presence of the Ursuline nuns near Boston reached a boiling point. An influx of Irish laborers had an impact on the work force in the city, and a deep-seated resentment against Catholics fueled the fire. The nuns supported themselves with a school, and most of the young women students were drawn from patrician Protestant families. Nevertheless, rumors fed by the saga of an unhappy junior sister and a later episode of a senior sister fleeing the place increased tensions. The city's selectmen were given a tour by the disgruntled sister, who by then had returned, and found all things in good order. That didn't please the mob, and the mother superior didn't help matters when she said that the bishop had platoons of Irishmen at hand, twenty thousand strong, to do marauders harm. By August 11, the convent had been invaded, ransacked, and burned to the ground. The nuns fled to Maine and Canada. The diocese attempted to recover losses, but the commonwealth offered only ten thousand dollars, which was rejected. Years later, a legislative bill for the state to rebuild the convent and school was roundly defeated. Yet the enterprise of Catholic education had great resilience, and in 1946, more than a hundred years after the riots, the Ursulines returned to Boston to re-establish an academy that endures to the present day. - Rev.
