The Highest Law

From time to time, newspapers and magazines will offer, as an item of "filler," various laws that are still on the books but seem silly to us in our day and age. In one California city, it is illegal to have two indoor bathtubs in one house. Clean water, a precious commodity when the law was written, is now readily available, so the law seems silly. But the human value of protecting and preserving precious resources is still around, evident in many conservation laws that seem sensible to us. So it is with the laws of religious tradition. What Jesus scorns today is others' attitude toward ritual laws, an attitude that becomes nearly idolatrous when laws are observed for their own sake. Jesus teaches that observation of external ritual laws is of value only when they are emblems of our internal disposition toward the will of God. Our whole lives must follow the one ultimate law of God: to love God completely and to love neighbor entirely. Roman Catholicism is a tradition rich with customs, traditions, and even laws. As we continue to listen to the voice of Christ, we must always look into our own hearts and underneath our ritual practices to make sure that love of God and love of neighbor are what we prize above all. *Copyright © J. TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When an altar is dedicated, the Rite of Dedication directs that, if possible, the relics of a martyr be mortared into the church floor under the mensa, or “altar table.” Up until this revised rite, the general practice was to include small relics of saints in an altar stone, a slab of marble that was normally set in the altar itself. Today’s rite states a clear preference for “martyr,” and for a substantial part of the body, in accord with our tradition’s desire for substantial symbols. Martyr, of course, means “witness” in Greek, and was the title given early on to the people who by their death imaged the death of Christ.

From the beginning, there has never been a shortage of such people, although it took a while for the Church to develop a process to declare someone a martyr. Saint Augustine tells how it was done in the fifth century. By then, popular opinion didn’t count as much as an official tribunal set up by the bishop of the place where the martyr suffered. After the inquiry established that the person did indeed die for the faith, a metropolitan bishop had to ratify the decision before a shrine could be built or an altar set up over the martyr’s tomb. For the most part, the honor paid to a martyr (called a “cult”) was restricted to that diocese, although the fame of some heroes spread so much that they were celebrated elsewhere. The age of the martyrs is now, and more people died for the faith in the twentieth century than ever before, witnessing to Christ to the end. Their sacrifice remains “the seed of the Church.” *Rev. Campaign Case for Support

St. Mary's Parish

9208 Main Street, St. Benedict, Kansas 66538

Our History

St. Mary's Parish at St. Benedict, Kansas was founded in 1859 and is the oldest continuous church organization in Nemaha County. The parish families continued to quickly out-grow three smaller churches over the years. In preparing for the future, plans were developed to meet the needs of the future. On November 13, 1894 the current St. Mary's church was completed. St. Mary's Church is of late Romanesque style. Together, the local limestone construction, classic space planning and lavish physical articulation of the Roman Catholic liturgical tradition make St. Mary's a fitting expression of its parishioners', builders', and keepers' resources and values: local, ethic and spiritual in kind. St. Mary's Church is enrolled in the National Register of Historic Places. A monumental restoration project took place from 1980-1984. The churches interior underwent a major restoration as some paintings were cleaned and restored to their original excellence. The stain glass windows were also renovated. The pipe organ was fully restored. The organ is listed in the national database of the Organ Historical Society. In 2017, an improvement project was launched to replace concrete plaza and sidewalks, improve handicapped and elderly access to the church, make parking more accessible and safe, improve access and update bathrooms in church basement and improve appearance of the church grounds.

One Faith, One Family, One Future in Christ

One Faith, One Family, One Future in Christ will serve as a powerful sign of our unity as Catholics, our strength as a family of faith, and our desire to leave a strong and holy Church for future generations of disciples.

Our parish is being called upon to participate in the campaign with the first block of parishes in 2018. This landmark initiative will be conducted in all parishes across the Archdiocese with the intention of igniting a new spirit for sharing our faith with the people in northeast Kansas. Please visit faithfamilyfuture.archkck.org for additional information about key campaign components.
