From the

Pastor's Desk

Dear parishioners,

Before I left on my vacation in August, our parish had undertaken our Archdiocesan Capital Campaign. Julie Strathman, the chairperson and the members of the Committee have been remarkable in keeping the Campaign going. I am truly delighted to see the results of their hard work.

Here are the updates of the Campaign as of last week. Total pledges received: $ 68,620.00; Number of families contributed so far: 26. The good news is, we have about 120 more families in the parish yet to make a decision.

I want to thank all those who have sacrificed and contributed to date and I encourage those who have not done so, to please consider helping us out to reach our parish target of 115,000.00. God bless! - Fr. Regie

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

One of our great treasures is the way the Church has frequently flourished under unfavorable conditions, like the grape ivy on the mantel that refuses to die no matter how infrequently you water it or open the drapes. Like the apartheid laws in South Africa in the last century, the penal laws of Ireland were aimed at depriving the majority population of basic human rights. The Protestant parliament of Ireland enacted laws limiting the practice of Catholicism. The goal was to force conversion from “popery” to the Church of Ireland, and additional laws took aim at Jews, non-Anglicans, and Quakers.

There were laws against intermarriage, laws against Catholics being lawyers (there was a one-hundred-pound fine), a law granting lifelong income to priests who became Protestant, and a ban on weapons. In fact, until 1793, a Catholic man had to recruit and pay a Protestant man to serve in the local militia in his place! As if family life is not complicated enough in any age, the sons of a deceased father could divide his land equally, unless one became Protestant. In that case all would go to him! When allowed, new Catholic churches had to be built of wood, not stone, be off a main road or city square, have no steeple or bell, and be called a “chapel.” Catholic “Emancipation” was largely secured by 1829, but even up to the founding of the Irish State in the 1920s, some effects of the laws endured. No wonder that poor Irish immigrants to the United States frequently built gloriously beautiful churches as their first act on free soil! - Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
