Archbishop's Call To Share 2019

Last week we kicked off the Archbishop's Call to Share Appeal in our parishes. Some of you might be wondering why Call to Share is continuing this year after we have just concluded a major capital campaign for the Archdiocese. Well, the answer is simply that just as in our parish we must have our regular Sunday collections for the ongoing operating expenses of the parish in addition to any special capital campaigns for our parish projects, so the Archdiocese must also fund the annual ongoing ministries of the Archdiocese in addition to the needs provided for in the recent capital campaign.

Our parish goal for this year is: $8,374.00. Please prayerfully consider what you can do this year, and return your completed pledge card in the collection basket in the coming weekends or mail it. Participation by every household in the parish will certainly help our parish reach its goal. Last year our parish participation was 42%. Let's raise it to at least 60% this year. Thank you.

Have you checked your Pictorial Directory?

Please check your pictorial directory to see if any pages are missing. The directory should have pictures of St. Mary's parishioners on one side and Sacred Heart parishioners on the other side. If there is any issue, please report it to Deb Bergman at 785-294-2803. Thank you.

If you did not take your photo or submit a photo to us, and you still want a directory, OR if you need extra directories, you may have them for a small donation of $10/book. They can be obtained by calling the office.

Symbolon: The Catholic Faith Explained.

Come, join us on Wednesdays, at 6:30pm at Sacred Heart Rectory (Baileyville) for the video series produced by Augustine Institute entitled, Symbolon "The Catholic Faith Explained." The series provides a comprehensive explanation of the Catholic faith: what Catholics believe and why.

Annual Contribution Statements

Please collect your Annual Contribution statements from the back of the church.

Please Note

The Altar Society officers are getting ready to put the work lists together for the picnic this year. Please let us know if you are unable to work because of health or other reasons.

Treasures from our Tradition

The cause of church unity is commended to Christians for prayer and action every year around this time. This week is not so much to focus on the many divisions within the Christian family, but on bonds of faith and mission. Even though Christians have always shown an inclination to fracture, spin off, and mutate into new expressions, recent history shows some new points of convergence and agreement. Catholics are more firmly rooted in the word of God, for example, and many Protestants are more likely to celebrate Communion than in years past. Some denominations are merging and pooling resources, and people from various traditions are collaborating on projects.

The call of this week is to be mindful of the diversity of our traditions and customs while treasuring what we hold in common. The old advice to “lighten up” is good medicine, because sometimes our differences are delightful and amusing. If someone says, “Let us pray,” a Catholic might close the eyes, bow the head and fold hands; a Protestant reach out and clasp hands with the person in the next chair; and someone belonging to an Orthodox tradition might stand up with eyes wide open. Each has taken a different path, but the goal is always the same. This is a week not for focusing on the well-worn paths of divergence, but for mutual delight in a common goal. —James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
