Pastor's Desk

The First Sunday of Lent is always a very special moment in the life of the Church. In churches throughout the world, a special gathering takes place in which the catechumens and candidates who are being received into the Church at the Great Vigil of Easter gather to celebrate the Rite of Election of Catechumens and the Call to Continuing Conversion of Candidates. It is an extraordinary sign of the Church's growth and the ministry of evangelization.

At this Sunday's liturgy, we celebrate the Rite of Sending our Catechumens for Election and Candidates for Recognition by the Archbishop. In this rite, the parish community is invited to express its support of our catechumens by sending them forth to the Rite of Election. We also show support to our candidates for full communion by sending them forth to be recognized by our Archbishop. This afternoon, at Christ the King Church in Topeka, our Archbishop will declare them to be members of the Elect, eligible to receive the Easter Sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and Eucharist. Within this same rite, the candidates for full communion will affirm their desire to be one with us and to participate fully in the sacramental life of the Catholic Church by reception into full communion.

Please pray for these newest members of our community.
Catechumens (Those preparing for baptism, confirmation, & Eucharist): Jordan Koch and Natasha Ruetti.

Candidate for full communion (Those already baptized in non-Catholic churches and who are preparing for confirmation, & Eucharist): Nathan Streit.

As part of our Lenten observance, participating in Catholic Relief Services' (CRS) Operation Rice Bowl is one way to live out this Gospel call.
