Pastor's Desk

This Monday we celebrate Memorial Day as we remember, pray for, and thank all who have given their lives in defense of our nation.

We live in a wonderful country. Let us never forget that our freedom was bought at a price, and that freedom like all things of value, is not free. We see that in a very human way on earthly battlefields, and in an eternal way, on the Holy Cross. Some people had to pay with their lives, so that we might be free today; Jesus did.

Treasures from our Tradition

Why is it still Easter? The lilies have long since faded. The roots of our tradition of fifty days of rejoicing from Easter to Pentecost lie in the seven-day rhythm of the Jewish week, drawn from the six days of creation plus a Sabbath day. A favorite name for the Lord's Day among our ancestors in the faith was "The Eighth Day," meaning that in Christ a breakthrough to a new humanity was achieved. With that inner architecture, it makes sense to see Pentecost as a week of weeks, forty-nine days plus one, again signaling that a new age has begun in Christ and the outpouring of his Spirit. The Jewish appreciation for Pentecost gave rise to the Jubilee year, the fiftieth year, when debts were released and prisoners set free. Today, the character of our Easter Sundays is conveyed by joyful Alleluias and the rite of sprinkling at Mass. Long ago, people expressed this joy by suspending all rules of fasting and by never kneeling at liturgy.

These customs all point to our conviction that time is holy. There's an elegant balance to the Christian year: 40 days of Lenten fast & discipline give way to fifty days of unrestrained rejoicing. That's why it is still Easter! —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
