Pastor's Desk

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. On Pentecost we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. The story of Pentecost is found in the Acts of the Apostles, today's first reading. The account in today's Gospel, (John 20:19-23), also recounts how Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Yet the event in John's Gospel takes place on Easter Sunday. There is no need to try to reconcile these two accounts. We know that after his death, Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an Advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

We have the witness of many generous and heroic people who have been 'led by the Spirit' and whose lives have given eloquent testimony to the power of God at work in them.

Today, let us ask the Spirit to touch all of our hearts, as He touched the hearts of the disciples on the first Pentecost. Today, let us say with believers throughout world: veni, sancte spiritus, Come, Holy Spirit, come into our hearts, come into our parishes, into our homes, and renew the face of the earth.

The seven-fold gifts of the Holy Spirit

Wisdom – gives us a relish for the things of God; directs us to love Him above all things.

Understanding – enables us to know more clearly the great mysteries of our faith.

Counsel – alerts us to the deceits of the devil and dangers to our salvation.

Fortitude – strengthens us to do the will of God; even to die before sin.

Knowledge – equips us to know the will of God in all things.

Godliness (piety) – inspires us to love religion and its practices; stirs us to obey out of love.

Fear of the Lord – fills us with a dread of sin.

Treasures from our Tradition

Today we are at the fiftieth day of the Easter celebration: seven weeks of seven days, a week of weeks, now culminating in a festival fiftieth day. While the liturgical color of the Easter season is gold, on this last day we have red. For the first thousand years of the church, there were no firm rules for using colors. Only wealthy churches could afford a full array of colors, and most places used the best vestments, no matter the color, for the greatest feasts. The Church spelled out an exact plan for color, including red for Pentecost, only in 1570, but local differences held on until the 1800s.

Color experts tell us that red is a hot color, best used for fast-paced, upbeat, active experiences. It is hard to be neutral before red, as any matador will tell you. It invites commitment, draws you in. It is a stimulating color, engaging the eye, stirring hunger. It is the most fitting color for this day when we celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit into our lives, a dynamic presence overturning neutrality in favor of passion and commitment. —Rev.
