From the

Pastor's Desk

After the Easter Season which ended with the Feast of Pentecost last weekend, the liturgy provides for the three Solemnities of the Lord: today, Trinity Sunday; next Sunday, Corpus Christi; & the following Friday, the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The Holy Trinity, the most important of all of the mysteries of our Catholic Christian faith. We invoke the Holy Trinity, continuously throughout the Eucharistic liturgy. From the beginning of the Mass, when we make the Sign of the Cross, until the final Trinitarian blessing, the Holy Trinity listens to our prayers and petitions and blesses us.

This presence of the Trinity does not stop when we leave church on Sunday. We are - always & everywhere - members of the Body, and everything we do as members of that Body is empowered by the Holy Spirit, all of it offered to the glory of our loving Father.

Take a moment each day this week to reflect on how the persons of the Trinity were present to you during the day, and how other people came to see the presence of the Trinity in your witness to the Good News.

The Gift of Fatherhood

In our current culture, the gift of Fatherhood is certainly underappreciated and taken for granted. This weekend's readings help us reflect on the creative action of God the Father, and his relationship with His Son, Jesus. We're reminded of the masculine virtues & dignity of Fatherhood! Good fathers:

- Give life to those around them.
- Love to provide abundantly for their families.
- Spend their strength on those they love.
- Stand firm and steady in adversity.

Husbands, as you reflect on your fatherhood (physical and/or spiritual) today, thank your wife for giving you this great gift! Wives, take some time today to affirm your husband's masculine, fatherly gifts!

Dadisms

- Turn off those lights. Do you think I'm made of money?"
- "We're not lost. I know exactly where I am."
- "Is that what they're teaching you in school these days?"
- "As long as you live under my roof, you'll live by my rules."
- "I never talked to my old man like that."
- "If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times."
- "They don't make 'em like that anymore."
- "Laugh it off."
- "I love you, kid."

Treasures from our Tradition

Today's feast, extending a dimension of Easter joy into Ordinary Time, reminds us that every aspect of worship centers on the mystery of God in three persons. At baptism, we are initiated into Christ and the Spirit. The Creed we recite at Mass every Sunday has its roots in the ancient celebration of baptism, when a new believer was questioned at the edge of the waters of the font with three questions: Do you believe in God, the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit? Three questions, three affirmations, three immersions into the saving waters. Because every liturgy abounds with references to the Trinity, not only in words but in blessings by the sign of the cross, this feast was not easily accepted into the calendar. Pope Alexander in the eleventh century remarked that the liturgy is so laden with praise of the Trinity that there was no need for a special feast. Two hundred years later, while in exile in France, Pope John XXII proclaimed the feast, but it was not until 1911 that Pope St. Pius X gave it status as a solemnity.

A favorite image in art for today is the Icon of the Trinity, showing three glorious winged men seated at a table laden with bread and a cup of wine. It recalls Abraham's hospitality to angels and gives expression to the inner life of God, a life lived in relationship, a life poured out in abundance whenever Christians gather at the table of the Eucharist to give praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Spirit. —Rev.
