Dear parishioners, four of our seminarians have been leading this year's Prayer & Action: A Summer Mission Program in our area, serving individual families and our communities in the form of minor house repairs, painting, cleaning, yard work & more at no cost to the homeowner or organization. They have done a great job with painting our Parish Rectory.

As they complete their Program next weekend, I'd like to take up a second collection at the next-weekend masses to help our seminarians. Your generosity will be much appreciated. Thank you.

Treasures from our Tradition

It's high summer now, school is out, the pace of work slows, and some people drift away. There are visitors in the churches every summer, and familiar faces are "among the missing." Some find the summer's call more appealing than the summons of the church bells. Many, however, would not dream of missing a Sunday, and so they make their way to Mass in unfamiliar places, watching the locals for clues as to when to sit or stand, where the Communion stations are. In answering the call, they keep the "sabbatical" rhythm of the Christian life: every seventh day, the Body of Christ assembles for worship.

For centuries, there was no obligation to Sunday Mass in the sense of a written law, but Christians have always yearned to be together on Sunday. In the city of Abitina, during a persecution by the Emperor Diocletian, a group of Christians were urged to stop worshipping together on Sundays. They responded, "Then take our lives, for without the Sunday we cannot live." By a curious coincidence, the appointed readings today center us on thoughts of peace. On our Independence Day, the experience of worship situated us in community, and evoked a commitment from us to be advocates of peace in all aspects of our society's life. —James Field, Copyright © J. ### Marriage Minute

If you are married, you are called, like this weekend's disciples, to prepare the way for Jesus! The love you have for your spouse is God's way of giving the world a tangible example of his own love for them. Consider how you share God's love in the following ways:

- To the WORLD: by speaking positively about marriage (and your spouse!) on social media and in conversation with coworkers and acquaintances.
- To your PARISH: by volunteering together with your spouse, by helping with marriage building events.
- To a SMALL GROUP: in Bible study group, a small group of friends, etc.
- To a FEW INDIVIDUALS: by intentionally helping to form your own children, or mentor a few engaged or married couples.

Being intentional in these relationships makes us the harvesters that Jesus desires! For more, www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
