Treasures from our Tradition

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the "baptism of the bells," recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell's voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, & the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs 27 tons! There's no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing! -James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch

Totus Tuus – Potluck

The Good Samaritan in Marriage

Jesus sums up all the Law and Prophets with the story of the Good Samaritan. His meaning is clear: we are to treat one another with mercy beginning with our spouses! Here are some practical ways we can show mercy to our spouse this week:

- Bandage their wounds by forgiving and helping them forgive others.
- Be moved with compassion by their struggles by listening to them and seeking to understand.
- Lift them up with affirmation and encouragement.
- Care for them by meeting spiritual, social, emotional and physical needs Every time this week that you make a meal, mow a lawn, take time to listen, or speak a kind word, you are living the mercy that fulfills the Law.

Donor Advised Funds

Charitable donations may be more complicated under the tax law changes implemented in 2017. Many CPAs & tax attorneys recommend a strategy of 'bundling' deductible gifts into alternate years. One way to bundle charitable gifts, according to your Catholic values, is through a Donor Advised Fund (DAF) with the Catholic Foundation of Northeast Kansas. More information is available at www.cfnek.org/daf or call 913-647-3062.

Picnic at Fidelity
