The Missionary Cooperative Program of our Archdiocese has selected the Sisters of Charity from Leavenworth to preach the mission appeal in our two parishes. Next weekend (Aug. 24-25), Sr. Helen Therese from Leavenworth will be sharing with us some of her mission experiences in Peru. Sr. Helen has worked for 42 years in the Peruvian mission field as a Sister of Charity and as a pastoral assistance. The Sisters of Charity continue in three different locations in Peru today.

Your donations to the Appeal will be used to further their mission work in Peru. Please use the mission offering envelope provided for your envelope packet and place your gift in the offering next weekend. Thank you for your generosity!

CCD Needs

We need two teachers for the Elementary program. If you would like to help, please contact Roxie Schmitz at 7853361108 or email gschmitz@bluevalley.net. The education of children in the Catholic faith is of very great importance and as a parish, we all have a duty towards it. Our parish CCD program depends entirely on Teacher volunteers. So, please consider volunteering. Thank you.

Listen to Jesus & the Prophets

Prophets have always had a tough row to hoe. Their words, often unwelcome, are used against them to persecute and even kill them. Such was the fate of the Old Testament prophets, and Jeremiah is a great example of this. Jesus endured opposition from sinners, and did not turn back from a shameful death in order to rise to a glorious new life. The ultimate prophet, Jesus sought to warn the people of his time and ours of the divisions that his words would cause, showing himself to be the prophet of all time. We all need to look at our divisions and dilemmas in light of Jesus' teachings and warnings, and seek to understand all that he has proclaimed and taught about what will happen if we fail to listen

Treasures from our Tradition

In recent weeks, we have reviewed how the Churches of East and West have enriched one another, and this past Thursday's solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was born in the Eastern Church. It is a gift from the ancient Church of Jerusalem, a commemoration of the death of Mary, and a feast charged with a deep sense of the Resurrection. Mary, the first disciple, is the first to share fully in Christ's victory over death. In the tradition of the East, August 15 is the "Dormition of the Theotokos," or the "Falling Asleep of the God-bearer." There is no shadow of death or gloom in the theology, since this is seen as a transformation of Mary's life into a heavenly and immortal existence. There is a sense in the tradition that she who made earth heavenly and exalted the human race by her faithfulness is glorified today.

A persistent legend among Orthodox Christians tells how all the disciples, except Thomas, who was preaching in India, were present at Mary's death and burial, and sat by the tomb for three days. On the third day, Thomas saw Mary's body rising to heaven. She greeted him as "my friend," and he was escorted by angels to proclaim her assumption to the others, who then realized her tomb was empty. Thus Thomas, the one who expressed doubt at the resurrection of Christ, received a gift from Mary: the chance to proclaim resurrection faith to the disciples.. -James Field, Copyright © J. S.
