Treasures from our Tradition

Although New Year's Day has been fixed firmly on January 1 for several hundred years, Labor Day has the feel of a great dividing line between leisure and routine. The pace of life has since picked up, and new schedules and commitments crowd us. In the background is God's call to consider the third commandment, still life-giving and binding, to make holy the Lord's Day by worship and rest. Jews see the Sabbath, Saturday, not so much as a day of worship, but as a day of rest, a day of renewing friendship with God by delighting in the beauty of creation and the joy of family and friends. It is a day for contemplating the wonder of God's creation, but not disturbing it.

For Christians in the first three centuries, the Lord's Day, Sunday, was not for rest, but worship. It was a regular work day. People met before dawn, and after Eucharist hurried off to daily routines. Today we come to Mass, but many hurry off to essential work, not a day of rest. The Lord's Day is not the Sabbath, but we can enhance Sunday's ability to transform us if we consider embracing some Sabbath values: having a family meal, going for a walk in a beautiful place, making room in our lives to open ourselves more fully to holiness of life in Christ. -James Field, Copyright © J. ### Marriage Minute

Do you want the angels to rejoice? Scripture tells us that it is simple to make angels rejoice. All we have to do is repent of sin. It may be simple but that does not make it easy. We can think that angels rejoice when big public sinners repent, but remember, the angels do not put a qualifier on the "bigness" of the sin. Turning away from sin, no matter how big, causes rejoicing in heaven. Examination for Married Couples:

- Do I spend time with my spouse?
- Have I been affectionate with my spouse?
- Have I listened to my spouse?
- Have I prayed with my spouse?
- Am I attentive to my spouse's needs?
- Have I spoken harshly to my spouse?
- Have I been moody with my spouse?

The rest of this examine for spouses can be found at the "Confession" tab on the Laudate app.

"God is always waiting for us. He never grows tired. Jesus shows us this merciful patience of God so that we can regain confidence and hope — always!" - Pope Francis

LOST AND FOUND

Welcome to "Lost and Found Sunday"! Just in case being in church makes us proudly consider ourselves especially religious, today's Gospel suggests that we'd be wiser to admit that we're sometimes lost. Then we'll eventually be happily counted among Jesus' "found," because today Jesus focuses on a lost sheep, lost coin, lost son. Jesus does so because the Pharisees and scribes, proudly considering themselves especially religious, "began to complain" that Jesus "welcomes sinners and eats with them." So Jesus warns them—and us—to stop judging others. Marvel instead that God's amazing grace has found us! Indeed, we should become Jesus' friends lovingly trying to find others. Copyright © J. S.
