Enflame Our Hearts Convocation 2019

Dear brothers & sisters, this week there will be a three-day convocation (Oct. 3-5) of Archbishop Naumann along with all the priests and other local church leaders of the Archdiocese in Kansas City. The goal of this gathering (and the initiative to follow) is to expand all facets of parish and Catholic life in our archdiocese beyond the demands of maintenance to the challenging adventures of mission. This will be accomplished by activating leaders who serve with "a missionary dynamism which will bring salt and light to the world." This event will be a launching point to a larger parish initiative in 2020. There will be eight delegates from our parish attending the Convocation. Please keep us in your prayers.

Priesthood Sunday (Sept. 29)

Priesthood Sunday is set aside to honor & pray for priests who bring Christ to us through the sacraments. They do many things unseen, and they pray for us every day. Priests are not looking to be recognized, but would appreciate your prayers & support during this difficult time in the Church.

Elementary CCD starts this week

The CCD classes for 1-5th grades will begin this Wednesday at 7:30 in the South Building in Baileyville. Welcome back!

RCIA will begin in October

Wednesdays 6:30-7:30pm at Sacred Heart Rectory

Do you know someone who wants to join the Catholic Faith? Then invite them to join the RCIA sessions beginning October 2. For more information call Father at 785-336-6464.

Welcome!

We joyfully welcome our newly-baptized Melanie Rose, daughter of Bradley & Susan Lueger to St. Mary's Parish family. She was baptized last Sunday September 22. May her life be filled with endless blessings and long-lasting faith!

Divine Mercy of Jesus – Series II

Will begin on Sunday, September 29 at 4:30 PM in the SPP Parish Hall. Child care provided in the Youth Center. Re-child care, please call Kristi Haverkamp at 785-477-3037. This will be a 6 week video & discussion series based on EWTN program, The Cenacle of Divine Mercy. To register, call Susan Stallbaumer at 336-1124. All are welcome!

Treasures from our Tradition

Over the past century, a desire to recover a deep sense of unity among all believers in Christ has grown. The “ecumenical movement” (from the Greek word meaning the “the whole inhabited world”) began among Protestant Christians, but was given great energy in 1920 with a letter from the Orthodox Patriarch of Constantinople, calling for closer dialogue and cooperation among Christians. In 1960, Pope John XXIII invited Protestant and Orthodox observers to the Second Vatican Council. In 1964, the Council’s Decree on Ecumenism named these Christians “separated brethren,” a huge leap forward from the time of labeling them as “outside the Church.” A year later, a new pope, Paul VI, and the Orthodox Patriarch officially nullified the condemnations that walled off East from West for nine hundred years.

The pace and optimism of the 1960s has sadly waned, and the signs of progress toward unity are few; yet there are wider agreements on sharing Communion among various Christian denominations, and among Protestants agreements regarding sharing of ecclesiastical life and ministry. Among the success stories of the ecumenical movement are greater cooperation among Christian clergy, a similar Lectionary for Protestants and Catholics, and even experiments in the monastic life and common worship.

Marriage Minute

“Woe to the complacent!” is the first of several warnings this weekend against getting too comfortable—good advice for us in our marriages! Often, it’s not the sins we commit, but the good things we omit, that cause our spouse the most pain. This week consider:

- ♦ What does your spouse do for you so consistently that you have forgotten to thank him/her?
- ♦ What difficult things does your spouse encounter each day? How might you lighten that burden?
- ♦ What one bad habit (of your own!) would your spouse most appreciate you work on?
- ♦ How often do you affirm your spouse’s strength/beauty?
- ♦ What one gesture, word, or action would make your spouse experience your love today?
