Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month. During this month, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between.

In most of the churches, this Sunday, the Catholics will have the opportunity to sign a petition to the members of the Kansas State legislature urging them to support a constitutional amendment to remedy the actions of the Kansas Supreme Court which claimed to have discovered a right to abortion in the Kansas Constitution, this past Spring.

The single most important action you can take this Respect Life month is to sign the petition urging our elected representatives to support the passage of a Constitutional Amendment. Without this Constitutional Amendment, even the Pro-Life laws previously passed by our State legislature are in jeopardy of being challenged in the Court. Please take part in the petition-signing campaign. God bless!

Treasures from our Tradition

Sometimes human relationships go awry, but Christ's choice for us is irrevocable. In marriage celebrations, the Church always recalls God's faithfulness to help prepare married couples for enduring the inevitable rough spots. The Byzantine liturgy does this by adorning the couple with crowns that remind them of the martyr's crown. The couple therefore takes on a vocation of witnessing to the sacredness of life in all of its suffering and joy, and of keeping their eyes fixed on the banquet of heaven.

In Eastern theology, people have a liturgical vocation to give God praise, and marriage fits within that plan. It is not so much saying prayers that counts, but becoming prayer. Interestingly, in this liturgy the couple never utters a word other than joining in the community's chants; there are no marriage vows as such. There is therefore not a hint of our Western Christian sense that marriage is a legal contract. Rather, it is all about living out one's baptismal vocation, embracing the cross, pouring oneself out in love, and opening to the grace of the Holy Spirit. -James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Marriage Minute

Want to steal all the joy out of your marriage? Have a pity party! We know that sitting in the corner thinking about how unappreciated we are only makes us more miserable, but while we are in the midst of it, it can be difficult to get out of it. Here are some suggestions:

- ◆ Pray for the grace of gratitude.
- ◆ Make a list of your spouse's thoughtful gestures (do NOT make one of your own!) Share it with him/her.
- ◆ Prayerfully read this weekend's Gospel: Luke 17:5-10. Pray for the humility of the servant.
- ◆ ASK your spouse for the help you need!

The noise of a pity party hardens our hearts and keeps us from hearing God's voice. Ask Him for help to rise above it today. For more joy in your marriage, go to: www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
