From the

Pastor's Desk

The readings today speak of healing and salvation. In Second Kings, Naaman, a commander of the army of the king of Syria, develops leprosy. He goes to a stranger, a prophet from Israel, when no one else can cure his disease. Much to his surprise, after a simple bath in the river, he is cured. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus cures ten lepers and sends them to the priest. Only one, a Samaritan, returns to thank Jesus for his cure and only he hears the words, "Your faith has saved you." The psalm and Timothy remind us that salvation involves justice, kindness, and faithfulness and forever links us with Jesus. In a world as broken as ours, both healing and salvation are necessary. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

All Souls Day

The devotion to the memory of the dead is one of the most beautiful expressions of the Catholic spirit." – Pope St. John XXIII. The month of November is a time when people particularly remember to have Masses offered for the dead, especially for family and friends. The Catholic Church dedicates the entire month of November to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. During this entire month, we pray for the souls of the faithful departed, especially those whom we have known and loved. Multiple intentions will be accepted at all the weekend masses in this month. Please call the office to book a mass.

Reverse the Ruling

Please sign the petition cards today if you haven't already done so to encourage the Kansas Legislature to reverse the ruling by placing before Kansas voters a state constitutional amendment restoring reasonable abortion limits. The Kansas Supreme Court recently created a nearly unlimited "right" to abortion in Kansas, effectively rolling back decades of enacted life-saving limits on abortion. There is a table in the back of the church where you can find these petitions to sign and other information on the issue. Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Unborn, pray for us!

Treasures from our Tradition

Christian liturgy has always contained an opportunity to make a choice for sharing. From the beginning, Christians pooled their resources, especially for the care of widows and orphans, at the weekly Eucharist. Over the years, the collection became detached from the liturgy and baskets or plates would be passed through the community while the Mass was going on at the altar, or contributions would be collected at the doors. In Milan's Ambrosian Rite, these gifts have always been brought to the altar by lay people in procession. In German countries, the ancient custom was for the entire assembly to process with their gifts—first the men, then the women, then the priests and deacons—to offer their gifts at the altar. The old ceremony of canonization included a curious vestige of this procession: people would present the pope with two loaves of bread, two barrels of wine and water, five candles, and three cages containing pigeons or turtledoves! -James Field, Copyright © J. Marriage Minute

Our worst sins as married couples are those of omission—the little services we didn't offer, the words of affirmation we kept to ourselves, the affectionate touch that we did not initiate. All of these deprive our spouse of the joy that God wants for him or her. Perhaps the worst thief of marital harmony is a lack of gratitude. Avoid this by:

- ♦ Running through your spouse's day in your mind. Consider all the small challenges he/she endures for you.
- ♦ Asking your spouse how you can pray for him/her each morning. This can reveal their struggles.
- ♦ Calling to mind three of your spouse's thoughtful deeds anytime you're tempted to "count" your own.
- ♦ Make a habit of affirming your spouse every day.
