From the

Pastor's Desk

The month of November begins with two great feast days: All Saints and All Souls. These two feasts invite us through prayer to focus on the reality of Eternal life. Through the Feast of All Saints we reflect on the lives of the Holy Men and Women who have gone before us and we implore their intercession as we seek to live holy lives ourselves. The feast of All Souls provides us with the opportunity to pray for all of the departed, in particular our loved ones, and ask that God may grant them mercy and welcome them into the full-

All Souls Day

The devotion to the memory of the dead is one of the most beautiful expressions of the Catholic spirit.” – Pope St. John XXIII. The month of November is a time when people particularly remember to have Masses offered for the dead, especially for family and friends. The Catholic Church dedicates the entire month of November to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. During this entire month, we pray for the souls of the faithful departed, especially those whom we have known and loved. Multiple intentions will be accepted at all the weekend masses in this month. Please call the office to book a mass.

Saturday Evening Mass: 6:00 pm

The Saturday Evening Mass in Baileyville will move back to 6:00PM from Saturday, November 9th.

Treasures from our Tradition

Friday's Solemnity of All Saints and Saturday's Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed fit well at the beginning of November. The liturgical readings of this final month in the Church year are keyed to the end of time and the fulfillment of Jesus' saving acts. Nowhere is this more fully celebrated than in Mexico, where November 2 is the "Day of the Dead." Missionaries moved an ancient Aztec festival from midsummer to November, linking the festival to Christian themes. Today, it is a time for remembering the dead and celebrating the continuity of life, principally by festive picnics in cemeteries. There are special foods and games, and people socialize with other families and tell favorite stories about their dear ones. The sweetness of life is honored by sugary desserts and treats. Flowers, music, lights, and feasting assure that the day is not at all morbid. Traditionally, the day begins with Mass, a procession to the cemetery, and a morning feast. Most families have a special dinner with the pan de muerto, or "bread of the dead." A toy skeleton is baked into the loaf, and the one who bites into it is considered lucky indeed. The dead are not feared, but deeply loved, and this joyful family feast points both to age-old customs and Resurrection faith. -James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Marriage Minute

When faced with the 2 characters in this weekend's Gospel, it is easy to see how ugly arrogance is compared with the disarming beauty of the sinner's repentance. So why is it so hard to follow suit in our lives, and especially our marriages? Here is a prayer for us all this week:

- ◆ Jesus, when I am tempted to hide my mistakes from my spouse, have mercy on me, a sinner.
- ◆ Jesus, when I begin to "count" all great things I do (that no one appreciates), have mercy on me, a sinner.
- ◆ Jesus, when I do not want to admit I'm wrong, have mercy on me, a sinner.
- ◆ Jesus, when I mask my hurt with self-righteous anger, have mercy on me, a sinner.
