The long-awaited One

As the Sundays of Advent unfold the scriptures shift focus from the final coming of the Lord to his historical birth. Today's scriptures blend the two. Isaiah's disillusionment with the kings of his own day led him to envision an ideal king who would rule with divine approval and be led by divine wisdom. For centuries the Jewish people anticipated the arrival of that Messiah, who would usher in a blessed age when the whole world would finally dwell in justice and peace.

After centuries of such growing expectation, the preaching of John the Baptist about the imminent arrival of the Messiah could not help but provoke intense interest. The Baptist's message about preparation for "the one who is coming" (Matthew 3:11) makes clear that Jesus is, in fact, the long-awaited one who is ushering in the new age foretold by Isaiah and all the prophets. Marriage Minute

While most of us are knee-deep in Christmas preparations already, let's not miss one of the most important - repentance! Repentance "makes straight the paths" to both Jesus and our spouse:

- ◆ It humbles us, which opens us to deeper intimacy.
- ◆ It reminds us that our relationship is more important than being "right".
- ◆ It fills us with compassion for our spouse.
- ◆ It takes the focus off ourselves & puts it onto our spouse.

Advent is the perfect time to apologize to our spouse for any behaviors and attitudes that have hurt our spouse. Also make use of the sacrament of Reconciliation! For more joy this Christmas go to: www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com
