Marriage Minute

“Are you willing to die?”: This week, St. Paul reminds us that, “While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” As married people, we are called to imitate Jesus by laying down our lives for our spouses, a theme that runs through many of our most cherished love stories. While we see great nobility in one spouse taking a bullet for the other, this is not the normal way we are called to live this out.

If we are willing to die for each other literally, we must be willing to die to ourselves in little ways... while our spouse is still a sinner. Here are some ideas:

- Pick up those socks without comment.
- Answer a bad attitude with lavish affirmation.
- Do one of your spouse’s chores without getting noticed.
- Seek understanding instead of the “last word.”
- Listen to your spouse without trying to “fix the problem.”

Small acts done with intention and with great love make the biggest difference: www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com.

Living In Love Retreat

WISDOM

*A wise old owl lived in an oak,
The more he saw the less he spoke,
The less he spoke the more he heard.
Why can't we all be like that wise old bird?*
—English nursery rhyme

God does not ask for our ability or our inability, but our availability.

Easter Flower Memorials

Easter offers us a special way of remembering our loved ones who are deceased. Place your intentions in the envelope marked “Easter Flower Memorial” and drop it in the collection basket at weekend masses or mail them to the parish office. The intentions will be remembered at the Easter Masses & your donations will be used towards Easter Lilies. Suggested donation is $15/Lilly.
