From the

Pastor's Desk

The season of Easter concludes with today's celebration, the feast of Pentecost. and the coming of the Holy Spirit among the believers of the early Church. Saint Paul reminds us of the special power the Holy Spirit has bestowed upon us and how that power gives us the potential to live extraordinary lives of faith. Good stewards recognize this power and use their gifts, through God's channel of grace, to transform their lives and the lives of others, and thus hasten God's Kingdom. Good stewards know that it is through the Holy Spirit that they can proclaim: "Jesus is Lord."

Life is always unstable; we do not know what tomorrow will bring. Coronavirus reminds us that tomorrow is not guaranteed, plans get broken and we do not (and cannot) control everything. One thing we can always count on is God's Love and Providence. The more we trust in God and obey His Will, our fear for the future and despair for the present will fade away. We can never become too holy or too close to God, so no matter where we are on our faith journey we can always grow in the Faith. Now is the time to grow closer to God. Allow and invite the Holy Spirit into your life to strengthen and guide you. How would our life look if we were to take upon a new prayer habit? What if each morning we said a prayer to the Holy Spirit to guide us throughout the day? Even if just once a week, we read the Gospel reading of the day? Let us pray that during this time of change and uncertainty we can grow in our Faith and grow closer to the Lord.

The seven-fold gifts of the Holy Spirit

Wisdom – gives us a relish for the things of God; directs us to love Him above all things.

Understanding – enables us to know more clearly the great mysteries of our faith.

Counsel – alerts us to the deceits of the devil and dangers to our salvation.

Fortitude – strengthens us to do the will of God; even to die before sin.

Knowledge – equips us to know the will of God in all things.

Godliness (piety) – inspires us to love religion and its practices; stirs us to obey out of love.

Fear of the Lord – fills us with a dread of sin.

Pentecost

Unless the eye catch fire, God will not be seen.

Unless the ear catch fire, God will not be heard.

Unless the tongue catch fire, God will not be named.

Unless the heart catch fire, God will not be loved.

Unless the mind catch fire, God will not be known.

—William Blake

The Richness of the Spirit

Students, and most adults recalling their school days, are familiar with the phrase "compare and contrast" that shows up from time to time on tests. Today we hear two different accounts of the giving of the Holy Spirit to the church. Let's contrast, then compare. Luke's account from Acts is filled with arresting details: the mighty wind from heaven, the tongues of flame, the miracle of different languages. John's account seems timid: fearful disciples, the wounded Christ, the expelling of breath from his risen body, not from the sky. Our literal, modern minds wonder which way it happened; our noisy culture probably makes us prefer the former. But if we compare the two, we find that the dazzling richness of the Spirit fills both accounts, for it is the very breath of the risen Christ, ascended to the sky in Luke, that appears to his disciples in John and sends his followers forth to carry on his mission of forgiving sin and proclaiming the mighty acts of God.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

St. Charles Lwanga & his Companions

(martyred 1886-87)

"Master of Pages," reputedly the handsomest man in all Uganda, Charles Lwanga, lay catechist, courageously led about forty teenaged boys, Catholics and Anglicans, on a forty-mile forced march to martyrdom for their common Christian faith. Teaching each other the hymns of their different churches, they strengthened one another for the ordeal ahead. King Mwanga, himself barely twenty, had ordered them executed for being "those who pray." But these royal pages were the king's male harem, who, now Christians, refused what pious accounts demurely describe as his "unreasonable demands." Some were clubbed to death, most burned alive; the youngest, thirteen-year old Saint Kizito, whom Charles had often shielded from the King's lust; the most tragic, Saint Mbagwa, whose father was his executioner! In 1964, Paul VI canonized the young Catholics and praised their Anglican companions, recalling the heroism of early Christianity's African martyrs, which we modern Christians of far less faith never expected to see repeated. Forty years after the pope's words, what does our faith cost us? Heroism aside, how generous is our response? - Peter Scagnelli, © J. S. Paluch Co.

for one moment the joy of Christ risen." - Mother Teresa
