The Presence of God

After the miracle of Jesus walking on water, the disciples exclaimed, "Truly, you are the Son of God" (Matthew 14:33). Most Christians will probably never experience such a dramatic miracle. Like Elijah, we await the manifestation of God in other moments. Perhaps the biggest challenge for the believer is to be constantly attuned to the possible presence of God in the everyday events of life. This is a stance that takes some people years to develop. Others seem to find the Lord easily in the simple things. As the week unfolds, let us look for the presence of God in the little things around us. Perhaps, like Elijah, we will be surprised at what we find. And, like the disciples, we can add our voice to the confession, "Truly you are the Son of God." - Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Welcome to our new DRE

Please welcome Betsy Macke as our new DRE (Director of Religious Education). While we are grateful to Alicia Keegan for her dedicated service for many years, we wish Betsy and all the CCD teachers well in their wonderful ministry. If you would like to volunteer to help with CCD or have any questions about CCD, you can contact Betsy at 785-336-1512 or betsymacke@yahoo.com.

CCD Teachers Needed

As we plan for the 2020-21 CCD year, we are looking for people who are excited about their faith and want to share it with our youngest parishioners. Our greatest need is:

A teacher for 6-7 grade with 8 kids

We realize a year commitment is sometimes difficult with busy schedules but it is being a positive influence in our young parishioners' lives. If the spirit is moving you to this ministry, please contact Betsy Macke at 785-336-1512 or betsymacke@yahoo.com.

Altar Society News!

The updated Circle Lists are in the back of the church ready to be picked up. The Bingo list will be updated when the Nursing Homes start allowing volunteers to come in again.

Saint Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein) (1891-1942) August 9

“Come,” Edith gently whispered, taking her sister Rosa’s hand, “let us go for our people!” These were Edith Stein’s last words as the Nazis, enraged at the Dutch bishops’ condemnation of their genocide, took into custody all Catholic converts from Judaism. Born Jewish, but non-practicing from her teens, Edith’s search for truth led to a doctorate in philosophy, a brilliant career as professor and author and, finally, to the Autobiography of Saint Teresa of Ávila, which she read in one sitting, then declared, “That is the Truth!” Baptized on January 1, 1922, observed then as the feast of Jesus’ initiation into the covenant of Abraham, confirmed on February 2, the feast of Jesus’ Presentation in the Temple, Edith entered the cloistered Carmelites in Cologne, transferring to a convent in Holland when she realized that, because of the Nazi persecution of the Jews, her presence could imperil the safety of the other nuns. She died in the gas chambers of Auschwitz as a daughter of Israel and of the Church.

Memories of ‘hard times’

People who lived through the Great Depression of the 1930s and the World War of the 1940s will remember when...

- ◆ Candy bars cost a nickel, comic books cost 10 cents, paperback books were 25 cents, and popcorn at movies cost 15 cents.
- ◆ There was no McDonalds.
- ◆ This year’s new cars looked different from last year’s, and different makes of cars looked different.
- ◆ It was considered a special treat to be taken out to dinner at a restaurant by your parents.
- ◆ It was considered unethical for doctors, lawyers, and pharmaceutical companies to advertise directly to the public.
- ◆ No one ever asked where the car keys were because they were always in the car ignition, and the doors were never locked.
- ◆ The worst thing you could catch from the opposite sex was chickenpox.
- ◆ Nobody owned a purebred dog.
- ◆ Nearly everyone’s Mom was home when the kids got home from school
- ◆ The teachers threatened to keep kids back a year if they failed the school year – and they did.
- ◆ Being sent to the principal’s office was nothing compared to the fate that awaited you when you got home.
