CCD Starts this Wednesday

The Sacred Heart-St. Mary's Religious Education Program for Grades 1 – 12, will start this Wednesday (Sept. 2) at 7:30 pm with an informational talk on CHWC followed by the Ice Cream Social. The Covid-19 guidelines will be followed.

The Elementary Group will begin their classes with the celebration of the Holy Mass followed by the Ice Cream Social. I encourage parents to interact with the teachers and offer parental support in the home with a continual review of your student's religious studies and homework. If you have further questions on CCD, please contact Betsy Macke (High School) and Roxie Schmitz (Elementary).

Let's pray asking God's blessings upon our students, teachers & parents as we prepare for a new year of faith-learning.

Veneration of the Relic of the Holy Cross

St. Mary's Church, St. Benedict, KS

Did you know that St. Mary's Church has the sacred relic of the True Cross of Jesus Christ? Come join us for the veneration of the Sacred relic on the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on Monday, September 14. The Veneration will begin at 6pm followed by the Stations of the Cross and concluding with the Holy Mass.

Under the present Covid-19 conditions, the recommended gestures of veneration are: touching the glass case that houses the relic, or simply standing near the relic in a prayerful attitude, or signing oneself with the sign of the cross or kneeling in front of the relic in prayer.

Collection for Lebanon Disaster Relief

"The world watched with shock and horror the catastrophic explosion in the Port of Beirut on Tuesday, August 4. Over 178 have died, thousands are injured, and the suffering has only begun to be told. Lebanon was already reeling from economic and government corruption along with the coronavirus pandemic. The plight of the Lebanese people is now even more dire. We encourage to pray for the afflicted and give generously to our collection for the Lebanon disaster relief next weekend (Sept. 5 & 6). There'll be special collection baskets marked with "Lebanon relief" at the entrances. Thank you for your support.

Saint Gregory the Great (540-604) September 3

Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, Gregorian chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory's legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory's administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and advisor, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the church's material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promotor of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the "Gregorian Canon" (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated "the Great," a fitting epitaph. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

The Cross of Jesus

The perception of a cross changed dramatically after Jesus' crucifixion. Before that event, death on a cross was not only horrible, it was degrading. It was a penalty reserved only for the most wretched of criminals. The word "glory" would not have found its way into the same sentence containing the word "cross." But all that changed with Jesus. Over time, believers began to venerate and honor the cross. They painted, sculpted, and carved images of it. Many lost their own lives for their association with it. Today our reverence for and relationship with the cross recalls little of the contempt originally associated with it. As it has been through the ages, it is our perception of the cross that determines how we follow Jesus. - Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

"God bless you"

When you sneeze, think of Pope St. Gregory, the Great. In 590AD, the bubonic plague was spreading to Rome. To combat the disease, the pope requested unceasing prayer. "God bless you!" in response to a sneeze was part of that effort.

How can I stop worrying about what other people think?

The problem with placing too much importance on other people's opinions of you is that you give them inappropriate power over you. In effect, you are substituting other people's values and judgment for your own and there is no guarantee that they have your best interests – or your eternal future – at heart. Not everyone is interested in helping you get to Heaven. Try instead to live by the rules detailed in the Ten Commandments and in the Beatitudes. They tell us to be devoted to God, to care for other people, to be honest and dedicated to truth, and to value the blessings God has given us.

Remember that there is value in being criticized or insulted even though you do the right thing. Not only can you offer it as penance for your sins, such suffering teaches humility and patience – two virtues that will help you get to Heaven. And when it comes down to it, the opinion of other people will pass, but God's judgment is forever.
