Veneration of the Relic of the Holy Cross

St. Mary's Church, St. Benedict, KS

Did you know that St. Mary's Church has the sacred relic of the True Cross of Jesus Christ? Come join us for the veneration of the Sacred relic on the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross on Monday, September 14. The Veneration will begin at 6pm followed by the Stations of the Cross and concluding with the Holy Mass.

Under the present Covid-19 conditions, the recommended gestures of veneration are: touching the glass case that houses the relic, or simply standing near the relic in a prayerful attitude, or signing oneself with the sign of the cross or kneeling in front of the relic in prayer.

St. Mary's Parish Appreciation Day

Even though we had to cancel our parish picnic this year due to Covid-19, there has been a tremendous financial support through donations to compensate the loss of picnic revenue. As of date, we have received $30,330.00 from 116 donors from our parish.

To show our appreciation to our parish members & also to use this opportunity to gather as a parish family, the Parish Council together with Altar Society have decided to have a Parish Appreciation day on Sunday, October 11th.

Please mark your calendar and join us for a Pulled pork sandwich meal serving from 11 am-1 pm at the Parish Hall with outdoor seating available. Meals to go will be available upon request. Free will donation will be available if you so choose. A small auction & raffle will take place. This event is reserved for St. Mary's Parish families ONLY.

I was having trouble with my computer so I called my 13-year-old son to help me. He clicked a couple of buttons and fixed it. As he was walking back to his room I asked him what the problem was. He said, "It was an 'ID ten T issue'." Not wanting to sound stupid but curious in case I had the same problem again, I asked him what an ID ten T was "Write it down," he said; so I did. ID10T...He never was my favorite child anyway.

Saint John Chrysostom (c. 344-407) September 13

“Speaking truth to power” may have become just another cliché, but doing precisely that cost John “the Golden Mouth” (Chrysostom) his diocese and, after exile and a forced march, his health and life. “Renowned for eloquence, heroic in suffering” (Sacramentary), John’s scriptural insights still comfort and challenge. Mystical theologian, he bids Eastern Christians, whose principal Divine Liturgy bears his name, to lift up their hearts to “God ineffable, beyond comprehension, invisible, beyond understanding, existing forever, always the same.” Model pastor, he warns Roman Catholics in the Liturgy of the Hours not to neglect God-in-the-flesh: “Would you honor Christ’s body? Do not scorn his nakedness, honoring him here in church with silken robes, while neglecting him cold and naked outside. What use to burden Christ’s altar with golden chalices, while Christ himself starves to death? What use dressing the altar with gold-woven cloths, while denying the shivering Christ the clothes he needs? Do not adorn the church while ignoring your needy brother: he is the most precious temple of all!” (Saturday, Twenty-first Week in Ordinary Time). — Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Forgiveness

Nearly ten years before, a son and father had parted ways when the business they shared went bankrupt. The son blamed the father. They did not speak to each other again. Then the father became seriously ill. The mother called the son and told him he had better come soon. The son walked sheepishly into the hospital room. The father motioned his son to him and whispered: “Did you ever think you could do anything that would keep me from loving you?”

Resentment and anger are foul things, the first reading from Sirach tells us. Remember the last things. Stop hating. Live by the commandments. As St. Paul writes to the Romans, we are to live for the Lord and die for the Lord.

Jesus’ parable in today’s Gospel reminds us of God’s compassion. The immense sin of humanity has been forgiven and stricken from the record. We are to forgive others in the same way. - Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
