Saint Martin de Porres (1579-1639) November 3

An old illustration pictures Martin de Porres, finger to his lips—"Shhhh!"—as several mice peek out of sacristy vestment drawers, preparing to join a rodent "procession" following him out of church! Martin's rescue of these unwelcome guests, and statues depicting him, broom in hand, feeding a dog, cat, bird, and mouse from the same dish symbolize his life & sanctity. Initially denied entrance by the Dominicans because of his mixed race (Spanish father, Panamanian mother), Martin cherished society's marginalized. For him, menial tasks, lovingly done, were sacred. Great and lowly alike feasted on his charity. Enemies were reconciled by this "poor mulatto" (his self-description), kind even to those whose racism demeaned him. Apprenticed to a surgeon-barber in his youth—thus patron saint of hair stylists and public health providers—Martin dispensed healing & dignity to Lima's poorest, serving in them the Christ he adored for hours in the Blessed Sacrament. By the time he died, all Peru called him Martin the Charitable, a title even those of us who will never be called "saint" might still aspire to. - Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

A Prayer for Those Who Have Died

You can shed tears because they are gone, or you can smile because they lived. You can close your eyes and pray they will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that they left for you. Your heart can be empty because you can't see them, or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember only that they are gone, or you can cherish their memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind and feel empty, or you can do what they would want. Smile, Open your heart, Love...and go on. ~ Elizabeth Ammons

Rekindling the Light

Spiritual Refreshment for Caregivers in the Holiday Season Hosted by the Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas and The National Catholic Partnership on Disability with Catholic Author and Speaker Maureen Pratt Throughout this unprecedented year, caregivers have tirelessly and selflessly shown their love in grand ways and small. As 2020 nears an end, one more potentially tall hurdle remains: The holidays! Full of profound faith and spiritual meaning and additional events and activities, the weeks between Thanksgiving and New Years can be especially challenging, stressful, and draining for caregivers. It can also be a time of isolation and loneliness. Rekindle the Light will provide a virtual half-day of spiritual refreshment for caregivers of all kinds.

Rekindle the Light... will be held live online on Saturday November 14, 2020, from 12:30 to 4:30 CST. For registration and agenda, go to www.archkck.org/special-needs. For more info, contact Tom Racunas at tracunas@archkck.org or call 913.647.3054.
