Dear parishioners,

It's been a year since we launched our year-long subscription to formed.org costing a total amount of $1000 for our two parishes. I hope you have taken advantage of the many resources - thousands of videos, podcasts and books for all ages etc. - available to you online to grow in your faith.

It's time to renew our subscription. Before I do that, I'd like to know how many of our parishioners have used this program. Send me an email (pastor@shbaileyville.com) and let me know your feedback. Also, if you've got a favorite that you'd like us to share with others, feel free to email me and I will share it in our bulletin so we can help one another grow in knowledge of our faith. If you haven't already signed up;

Go to www.formed.org Click on Sign Up

Thank you. God bless! - Fr. Regie

Expecting the Unexpected

If it ever crossed your mind that Jesus was somewhat lacking in a sense of humor, today's Gospel should belie any such notion. Jesus' story of the five wise and five foolish bridesmaids is downright hilarious. The circumstances of the story were surely familiar to Jesus' listeners, just as they are—if we think about it—to us. Weddings never, ever start on time. There's always a delay. Buttons pop off at the last minute. Flowers wilt. Cars full of wedding guests get caught in traffic. Soloists contract laryngitis. Brides or grooms or priests show up late! So the only reasonable way to approach a wedding is with a sense of humor, to realize that something probably will go awry, and, when that happens, to smile about it.

Jesus tells this funny story to encourage us to be watchful, yes; to be ready, yes. But he doesn't tell it to make us dour and somber. The heavy-hearted tremble, waver, lose sight of their place and purpose, and fall asleep. The lighthearted know that the unexpected will happen—is bound to happen—so they are awake in their place and ready in their purpose when it comes. - Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini (1850-1917) November 13

Burly longshoremen glared at the woman in widow's dress who interrupted their drinking to beg money, in broken English, for her orphanage. The bar exploded in laughter as one man responded by spitting in her face. "That was for me," the woman smiled. "Do you have anything for the children?" Given today's national debate, could it be as much God's sense of humor as God's will for our sanctification that our first American saint should be an immigrant and naturalized citizen? Frances Cabrini, adopting the name Xavier, confided to Pope Leo XIII her longing to follow her Jesuit patron to Asia. But the Pope replied, "Not East—West!" So she and her Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart exchanged exotic dreams of China for the impoverished reality of Italian ghettos across the United States and Central and South America. Before her death, Frances had founded seventy educational, health care, child, and family service institutions. Today, from Siberia to Ethiopia, in sixteen countries, Mother Cabrini's sisters and lay associates embody her practical spirituality: "Let's get to work! We'll have eternity to rest!"

Rekindling the Light

Spiritual Refreshment for Caregivers in the Holiday Season Hosted by the Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas and The National Catholic Partnership on Disability with Catholic Author and Speaker Maureen Pratt Throughout this unprecedented year, caregivers have tirelessly and selflessly shown their love in grand ways and small. As 2020 nears an end, one more potentially tall hurdle remains: The holidays! Full of profound faith and spiritual meaning and additional events and activities, the weeks between Thanksgiving and New Years can be especially challenging, stressful, and draining for caregivers. It can also be a time of isolation and loneliness. Rekindle the Light will provide a virtual half-day of spiritual refreshment for caregivers of all kinds.

Rekindle the Light... will be held live online on Saturday November 14, 2020, from 12:30 to 4:30 CST. For registration and agenda, go to www.archkck.org/special-needs. For more info, contact Tom Racunas at tracunas@archkck.org or call 913.647.3054.

Pancake Breakfast Cancelled

The Altar Society regrets to inform you that the Pancake Breakfast scheduled for Nov. 8, has been cancelled due to the recent spike in Covid cases.
