MARRIAGE MINUTE -AUGUST 13, 2017

How do you make decisions as a couple?

In this week's readings, God speaks to Elijah in a whisper, while he gives an unmistakably bold call to Peter. If you are married, God will speak to you through your spouse. Here are a few principles of couple decision making that will help you hear his voice: • Remember that your relationship is more important than any decision • Share your feelings on the decision ahead of time so they don't interfere with your reasoning • Ask yourselves, "Which option will be in the best interest of our marriage?" • Be sure both spouses will back the decision if the consequences are bad. Learn more about couple decision-making at "Every Day in Love!" www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

DEAR PADRE AUGUST 13, 2017

I look at what's going on in our world today and I start to lose faith. How can I keep my faith strong in a time that seems faithless?

Evil isn't a new phenomenon. The Book of Judges, for example, presents a faithless time that may rival what's happening in our world today. Judges' twenty-one chapters are so filled with vandalism and war, murder and assassination, fratricide and suicide, that it makes a grim statement on the worst of humanity. Judges reminds us of humanity's need for salvation. "Left to itself, humanity degenerates into a frightful caricature of what we ought to be. We see such lessons repeated in recent history....In the Book of Judges, we see our need for God" (Oscar Lukefahr, A Catholic Guide to the Bible, Liguori Publications, 1998). It's easy to lose faith when our focus is on how bad the world is rather than on how we can do our part to make it holy. Pope St. John Paul II wrote: "Awareness of our own sinfulness, including that which is inherited, is the first condition for salvation; the next is the confession of this sin before God, who desires only to receive this confession so that He can save man. To save means to embrace and lift up with redemptive love, with love that is always greater than any sin" (Crossing the Threshold of Hope, 58, Knopf, 1994). Don't lose Christian hope! While Christ already triumphed over sin and death, the reality of evil remains until God's kingdom is fully realized on earth as it is in heaven (1 John 5:18-20). Fr. Byron Miller, CSsR

WIFE calls her husband and says, "Darling, the car is broken, it won't start."
"What?! It's in perfect order, what's wrong with it?"
"It's water in the carburetor, love."
"Oh no, where are you right now?"
"Um, in the little lake behind the house..."
